INFLUENZA CONDITIONS BETTER IN COUNTY, WORSE HERE

Physicians Reporting to County Health Officer Says That Conditions are Clearing Considerably in the County Districts—Few More Cases Reported in the City.

Influenza conditions in Mason county are much better than they were at the beginning of last week according to reports received by County Health Officer J. S. Locke from the various physicians in all parts of the county but the situation in the city is not so encouraging.

Physicians at Orangeburg, Minerva, Mayslick and Washington where the influenza has been the most serious now report that there is much improvement so far as new cases are concerned and while physicians in the city of Maysville are now reporting a few more cases each day it is said that the disease is in a very mild form and very few cases are developing into pneumonia.

The same trouble is now experienced that was experienced in the former epidemic in that some of the physicians are not reporting promptly. As a rule the majority of the physicians are very prompt but many have been kept so busy answering calls that they are unable to report promptly.

The situation in Maysville has not become so alarming as to warrant the attention of the Health Board. Dr. Locke is handling the situation very satisfactorily but when the situation reaches a serious aspect he can be trusted to bring the matter to the attention of the board and recommend immediate action.

"FLU" PLAYS HAVOC IN LOCAL STORES

The Maysville stores have begun to feel the touch of influenza in the community and many business houses are now short on help because of the disease. Wells' Central Meat Market and Cablish's grocery store are both badly crippled.

Mr. John Robert Curry attended the great concert of the Cincinnati Symphony orchestra Saturday night at which the great violinist Mischa Elman was the soloist.

RETURNED TO PARIS ON FAILURE TO PROVIDE CHARGE

Railroad Engineer Arrested Here and Returned to Bourbon County on Serious Charge of Failing to Provide for His Family.

E. W. Culberson, of Paris, an engineer on the L. & N. railroad, who was arrested here last week on a warrant from Bourbon county charging him with failure to provide for his family, has been returned to Paris by Chief Harry A. Ort, of the local police force, to face the charge.

Culberson has been employed on the L. & N. railroad for some time but recently was laid off by the company temporarily. Instead of going to his family at Paris, it is charged, he came to Maysville and has not been furnishing his family with the necessities while, it is said, he has been having a good time with the ladies in Maysville.

The trial of the Paris man will be held in Bourbon county this week. He has a wife and two small children in the Bourbon county capital.

FOUR DEATHS IN FLEMING SUNDAY

There were four deaths in Fleming county Sunday from influenza and pneumonia according to reports received by Dr. J. S. Locke from the County Health Officer of Fleming county. Dr. Locke, who is in charge of the United States Public Health Service's work in this section of Kentucky receives daily reports from five adjoining counties on the health situation.

SOME SPEEDER

Some bird turned loose all the power he had in his motor through East Second street today at noon and considerably frightened the residents. No body knows who the speedster was but all who heard the hum of the motor or saw the streak of blue left behind will say that the machine was not a Ford.

INFANT BURIED MONDAY

Shelby Rhodes, the eight months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rhodes, of Walnut street, who died at the home of the parents Sunday, was buried at Shannon Monday morning.

Mr. Frank Spencer is confined to his home with influenza.

CHURCHES NAMED BENEFICIARIES IN MRS. HAYS WILL

Will of the Late Mrs. Fannie A. Hays Probated—Relatives Receive Large Portion of Estate—Washington and Augusta Churches Receive Funds.

The will of the late Mrs. Fannie A. Hays, who recently died at her home in Augusta, was probated in the Mason county court this afternoon and the large estate was distributed among relatives and friends and the Presbyterian churches at Washington and Augusta bequeathed a fund each.

By the terms of the will the Endowment Fund for Ministerial Relief of the Southern Presbyterian church will receive a sum of $10,000 at the death of relatives.

The sum of $200 was left in trust with the Maysville Cemetery Company for the perpetual care of the Worthington and Hays lots in the Maysville cemetery.

To her nieces, Blanche W. Jackson and Alice Worthington the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) was bequeathed. This fund will be held in trust for them and they are to receive the interest but at their death the will directs that the fund shall be paid to the Endowment Fund for Ministerial Relief of the Southern Presbyterian Church of the United States.

To her brother Gilbert Adams and wife the sum of fifteen thousand ($15,000) is bequeathed.

Her sister, Florence Adams Cook received the sum of $2500 and the children of her deceased sister, Nettie Adams Cook, will receive one thousand dollars each.

Misses Mary Eliza Richeson and Sue Richeson, of this city, cousins of the deceased $500 each and Misses Bessie and Hattie Johnson, of this city, also cousins, receive $500 each.

The sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) is left in trust for the Presbyterian church of Augusta. Only the interest is to be used but it may be used for the pastor's salary, current expenses or anything the officers and congregation desire to use it for. A sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) is also left to the Presbyterian church of Washington, this county, to be used in the same manner and the residue of the estate is bequeathed to the Endowment Fund for Ministerial relief of the Southern Presbyterian church, of the United States.

To her friend, J. Foster Barbour, of this city, the sum of one thousand dollars is bequeathed.

The original will is dated April 25, 1917, and Mr. J. Foster Barbour is named executor without surety.

A codicil dated August 23, 1917, increases the bequest of $2500 to her sister Florence Adams Cook, to $5,000.

Another codicil dated November 7, 1917, changes the bequests to her nieces in the original will willing them $5,000 each instead of $10,000 jointly and sets out that the $15,000 bequeathed to her brother and his wife should be divided between them share and share alike.

J. Foster Barbour, named in the will as executor qualified and Messrs. R. K. Hedlich, N. S. Cathoun and C. F. Wright were named appraisers.

MAGISTRATE'S COURT

Squire Fred W. Bauer's regular monthly court was held today and a very large docket was disposed of. Because of illness in many instances several cases were passed until the next term of court.

Mr. Clarence Dodds returned to his home in Middletown, Ohio, yesterday afternoon after a pleasant visit with the family of his son, Mr. Carl Dodds. Little Miss Frances Dodds accompanied her grandfather for a visit with relatives at Middletown.

Mr. John I. Claybrook, of Washington, was in Maysville Monday, the first time for several weeks during which time he and his family have been confined with influenza.

Regular monthly meeting of Maysville Chapter No. 9 R. A. M. will be held this evening at 7 o'clock.

C. E. DIETRICH, H. P. C. P. Raup, Secretary.

On account of the Teachers Training Class held at the Christian Church Tuesday evening, the "Loyal Women" class will not meet with Mrs. W. F. Steele as announced.

Maysville new electric plant was closed down Sunday while repairs were made to one of the boilers. Power was furnished from the city.

The Aid Society Church will meet at 1:30 o'clock at 310 Market.

BIG MUSICAL COMEDY AT WASHINGTON SATURDAY

"Oh Sammy" Is Coming to Maysville Next Saturday With Plenty of Girls, Music and Scenery—First Musical Comedy of the Year.

The show lovers of Maysville and vicinity will be given a great big treat on next Saturday when the "Oh Sammy" Company of comedians have the boards at the Washington Theater. The advance man for the company was in Maysville today making all preliminary arrangements for the big entertainment.

This show has gone big all over the country and as Maysville is a musical comedy town it is expected that there will be a great audience to greet the big company of stage stars.

If a good laugh is a tonic why go and see Oh Sammy which comes to the Washington next Saturday and you won't need to buy another bottle of medicine for the rest of your life. This comedy is produced solely and entirely to amuse. Then there are girls, certainly there are always numerous girls. Under these circumstances and there is also a plot. A regular life sized plot which does not get lost in the scenery, or costumes as most plots do in musical comedy, but stays right on to the finale.

OLD PAPERS ARE DISCOVERED

A number of old papers and books were found in the old Miner building at Second and Sutton street recently when the building was being renovated that brought back the memories of days when the Ohio river was Maysville's chief artery of freight. Among other papers were found freight bills with the names of such boats as the Boston, Firestone, Ohio No. 1, Ohio No. 3, Fleetwood, Hlandy, J. B. Brown and many other of the old timers on them. The bills were dated in 1859.

COUNTY BOARD OF AGRICULTURE HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

The Mason County Board of Agriculture held a very interesting meeting at the office of County Agent George Kirk in the Chamber of Commerce building Saturday afternoon. Matters pertaining to the advancement of agriculture in Mason county were extensively discussed. Another very important meeting will be held this week when the board will select its officers for the ensuing year.

PLANS FOR CHICKEN SHOW GO FORWARD

The show committee of the Mason County Poultry Association is very busy just now making arrangements for the big poultry show to be held in the Thomas building in lower Market street the first of next month. It is understood that some of the best birds in the state of Kentucky will be displayed at this show.

MR. CROWELL'S FUNERAL MONDAY MORNING

The burial of Mr. George W. Crowell, who died at his home in East Second street Saturday morning was made in Maysville cemetery Monday morning at ten o'clock. Quite a number of friends were at the grave.

Just arrived 20 barrels Fancy New Crop New Orleans Molasses $1.19 per gallon cash. Bring your jug. R. LEE LOVEL.

Mr. John Watson Mathews, who is employed at Ripley, Ohio, by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, spent Sunday with his parents here.

INVESTIGATE SMALL BOYS SMOKING CIGARETTES ON STREETS

Complaints Reach Juvenile Judge That Small Boys Are Securing Cigarettes Through Older Boys—Investigation Being Made.

Within the past several days there have been many complaints filed with Juvenile Judge H. P. Purnell that a large number of small boys have been seen on the streets in Maysville smoking cigarettes. These lads are entirely too young to procure cigarettes from dealers under the law but they are rather bold in their smoking and when the matter is mentioned to them they become very insulting in their remarks.

So general has become the complaint that Judge Purnell has ordered an investigation into how the small boys are securing these cigarettes. It is learned that the merchants in Maysville are obeying the law very strictly and that no boys under the legal age are allowed to purchase smokes in the local stores. The manner in which the small boys procure their cigarettes has been discovered. They give their money to older boys who go to the stores and purchase the cigarettes and for their trouble receive a part of the package.

Judge Purnell Saturday issued a warning to these older boys who are thus procuring cigarettes for boys no more than ten years of age that they will be arrested and severely punished if it is learned that they continue this plan. Judge Purnell has decided that the practice of small boys smoking cigarettes on the streets of Maysville must be broken up and the officers have been given instructions to carefully watch this matter.

"FLU" BETTER AT ORANGEBURG

During the past few weeks the influenza situation in the Orangeburg neighborhood had been very serious but reports from that section of the county today are to the effect that things are clearing up considerably and it appears that the situation will be well in hand in that section within the next few days.

Mrs. Luther C. Reynolds and son, Nesbitt, are the guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Gault Watson, of West Third street, and will leave the first of next week for Louisville to make that city their future home.

TRUANT OFFICER BADLY SCRATCHED BY "HOOKEY" PLAYERS

Major John Walsh Badly Torn On the Hands and Arms When Youngsters He Was Returning to School Turned on Him.

Major John Walsh, city truant officer, was rather badly injured on the hands and wrists today about noon when two boys he had arrested for being truants and who he was returning to school, attempted to cut him.

As is his daily custom Major Walsh made his rounds of the city schools to obtain a list of the youngsters who were not attending school. During the past few weeks he has been receiving rather long lists but many of these are out because of sickness or because some member of the family is sick. He is investigating only those who he has reasonable grounds to believe are playing truant.

At one of the schools the names of Robert and Walter Perry, who live on Kentucky street in the Sixth Ward, were given him and as they were thought to be truants the Major began an investigation. The boys were located and when Major Walsh started to return them to school the older boy, Walter, who is 14 years of age, drew a knife on the officer. Major Walsh took the knife from the boy but not before he was cut on the wrist. Then both boys jumped onto the officer with their finger nails and badly scratched him.

The matter was reported to the police and Officers Tolle and Gibson arrested the boys about three o'clock and took them before Juvenile Judge Purnell.

POPULAR PASTOR IS IMPROVING

Dr. B. B. Bailey, popular pastor of the First Baptist Church, who has been confined to his home on River-view Terrace with a severe cold and who was unable to conduct services at his church Sunday, is reported as now getting along nicely and it is expected that he will be able to again be in his pulpit on next Sunday.

Obio tobacco again crowded the ferryboat today. There were some 15 wagon loads on the Ohio side before the ferry started operations.

Just arrived 20 barrels Fancy New Crop New Orleans Molasses $1.19 per gallon cash. Bring your jug. R. LEE LOVEL.

LOCAL RETAILERS OPPOSED TO NEW LUXURY TAX BILL

Maysville Dealers Through Chamber of Commerce Ask Congressman to Favor Amendment of Tax Measure.

Secretary Dodds in behalf of the local retail interests has wired Representative J. W. Fields as follows:

"The proposed Luxury Tax Bill on wearing apparel, will prove a great detriment to the retail interests and in turn upon the consumer and defeat the aims of the manufacturing interests in employing labor at the present high scale of wages. We hope you may favor its amendment."

Mr. Granville Burton, President of the Kentucky Retail Clothiers' Association, in a communication to Representative Swager Sherley says, "This bill was originally framed in time of warfare to discourage, primarily, the production of finer merchandise in favor of more practical articles of necessity. In these times when it is necessary to employ labor at high wages there is no room for such a bill. The expense and waste involved in collecting taxes in this manner do not justify this method of taxation."

This is as a travesty on conservation. The extra work and tremendous extra expense to the merchant, aside from the tax, to keep such necessary records make the tax impractical, however, average salespeople cannot be relied upon, in my opinion, to make accurate collection of the tax."

FILES SUIT FOR DIVORCE

In the Mason Circuit Court today John P. Parker filed suit for a divorce from his wife, Mary A. Parker. They were married in Maysville on December 24, 1907, and have lived together as man and wife until June, 1915, when the husband claims his wife abandoned him without reason and he says she has not lived with him since. He asks for an absolute divorce.

ILL WITH PNEUMONY

Mrs. Nettie Eckler, sons Charles and Joseph Keith, are all confined to their home in Commerce street with pneumonia. Mrs. Eckler is said to be seriously ill.

Mr. Millard Merz, of Philadelphia, Pa., is spending a few days with relatives here.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

SEEKING TO LIMIT IMMIGRATION

"A double object is announced in two bills now before Congress," says a writer in the New York Times, "—to restrict immigration and to keep out the Bolsheviks. The first effect, of course, can be attained to any desired degree by the passage and enforcement of exclusion laws, but it is hard to see how the entrance of Bolsheviks can be prevented otherwise than by an absolute shutting off of arrivals from abroad.

"Bolshevism is a state of mind. It is not peculiar to any class or race, as is shown only too plainly by its appearance here among educated men of the old strains supposed to be safest from such stupid and harmful illusions. And certainly Bolshevism cannot be barred by asking each arriving immigrant if he is a Bolshevik or not and letting him in or sending him away according to his answer, negative or affirmative. The Bolshevik conscience recoils from lying no more than from theft or murder.

For attaining this second purpose, therefore, as for many others probably more important, real exclusion, very carefully qualified in favor of comparatively few individuals needed here or especially worthy of admission, seems to be the only means. The situation confronting the country is quite without precedent, and all, or almost all, of the old arguments in favor of the open door to immigrants not criminals or incapable of self-support have been at least much weakened.

The chief problem for solution is that of returning to normal industry something over 2,000,000 men who have been in uniform, and it is not desirable to have that problem complicated by the arrival at our ports in great numbers of men whose chief ambition is to avoid paying their share of the taxes and indemnities that are to be imposed on the Central Empires and their vassal States.

It is generally estimated and is undoubtedly true that stocks of goods in the country are only 50 per cent. of normal. This applies to goods in the hands of manufacturers, jobbers and retailers. To bring stocks up to normal and supply current demand will require a year or two, and perhaps more. As many believe there should be no fear of lack of employment following the demobilization of the military forces.

Of course Ajax defied the lightning, but the lightning is still doing business at the same old stand and Ajax is dust. This historic disrespeetfully referred to the German junkers.—Dallas News.

YEAR-ROUND PASTURES

The permanent pasture can be managed so that it will save labor in winter as well as summer. Blue grass, orchard grass, tall meadow and grass and white clover are cool weather plants very much as are crimson clover and rye. These permanent pasture plants begin their growth of the year as soon as the weather becomes temperate in the late winter or spring and keep it up vigorously until the hot weather of summer sets in. Then they do little more than stand still if the summer is hot and at least moderately dry. The farmer who has plenty of grass for the hot summer weather is the one who allows it to get a start in the spring and early summer. The stock work on the reserves through the hot weather. Then in the fall, with cooler weather and September and October rains, permanent pastures again grow vigorously and, if not overstocked, they get another reserve that makes some pasture all winter while the weather is too cold for much growth.

Some farmers have carried this idea a little further and keep their stock on pasture all year except when snow is on the ground. They have a summer and a winter pasture. Their cattle gain all winter on pasture. This is practiced more or less through the states of the central South, but has been most thoroughly tried in North Carolina.—Southern Agriculturist.

GOOD ROAD BUILDING

Release of Labor and Material Should Mean Attention for Our Long-Neglected Highways.

(By Walter C. White)

The release of labor and material incident to the demobilization of our army and the slowing down of the manufacture of war supplies, offers a golden opportunity for a program of road building more extensive than any in which the country has ever engaged. Not only must we make good the neglect which our roads have suffered during the period when road construction has been officially frowned upon, but we must go further and bring our entire system up to the standard of the far-famed roads of France.

While we often hear of the tremendous part played in the war by the Motor Transport, we are apt to forget that this part was made possible only because France has a splendid system of roads—not simply a good road here and a good road there, but a network of fine highways connecting almost every town and village in the country. Useful was this system before the war; during the war it proved the salvation of France; and now that the last shots have been fired, the roads may justly be termed one of the country's assets in the work of rehabilitation.

During my recent mission in France, as I traveled hour after hour over roads which were maintained in perfect condition almost up to the front-line trenches, I could not help but compare what France was doing even in the midst of war, to the almost scandalous indifference which our country, in time of peace—as in time of war, has shown toward the road question. I cannot help but feel that all of our soldiers when they return from France will demand that our roads be brought up to the French standard.

Let us anticipate that demand. Let every township, every county, every state, let our national government, begin to plan this very day to build roads adapted to the traffic of today and tomorrow. I need not argue the economic questions involved. That good roads soon pay for themselves many times over is known to every community which has made investments in this direction.

We have done our share to make the seas safe for the commerce of the world. Let us now turn some of our energies, released from war to the task of making our highways safe and practicable for our internal commerce.

CLEVELAND COMMITTEE CLEARS
DECKS FOR FIFTH

The local Liberty Loan Committee in Cleveland is already on its toes for the Fifth loan. The executive committee is already holding meetings at which the ground work is being laid for the last big loan which the Clevelanders are going to call the Victory Loan.

Charles A. Paine, who has been chairman in the past four loans will again be chairman, and Charles L. Bradley and Allard Smith will be vice chairmen. Bradley was vice chairman in the Fourth, and Smith was chairman of the industrial sales.

"The Fifth Liberty Loan will be the real test of patriotism," Paine said at the organization meeting recently. "The war has been won but we still have our duty to America's soldiers—to bring them back and see that they are properly started again in civil life."

ARE YOUR KIDNEYS WELL?

Many Maysville People Know the Importance of Healthy Kidneys.

The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. Weak kidneys remove impurities. Weak kidneys allow impurities to multiply.

No kidney ill should be neglected. There is possible danger in delay. If you have backache or urinary troubles, if you are nervous, dizzy or worn out, begin treating your kidneys at once; use a proven kidney remedy.

None endorsed like Doan's Kidney Pills. Recommended by thousands. Proved by Maysville testimony.

W. H. Lynch, shoemaker, E. Third St., says: "My kidneys were weak and sluggish. At one time the action of my kidneys stopped altogether. I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills and in a short time the action of my kidneys became normal. I kept on taking them and they completely relieved me." (State given January 9, 1912.)

Mr. Lynch is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS, the same that Mr. Lynch had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50 cents at all stores. ARMENIA'S WANTS FULLY OUTLINED BY MR. HOOVER

Director of Allied Relief Defines Attitude of United States and Allied Government.

"Why doesn't the Government do it?"

This was the question asked when announcement was first made that the Armenian and Syrian Relief Committee would ask the American people for $30,000,000 with which to save a persecuted people from starving. Those who asked the question knew that the United States and the allied governments were working together to relieve distress. But they did not know how the relief was being administered.

Herbert Hoover, director of the allied relief, defines the attitude of the United States and the allied governments in a special cablegram which he has sent in answer to the question, "Why doesn't the government do it?" It is made quite plain in this cablegram that the allied governments are providing relief by means of loans to the governments of stricken nations. The Armenians, Syrians and Persians have no government hence they are dependent on the benevolence of those who have not forgotten that these suffering people were loyal to the allies during the war and that they have been persecuted because of this and because of their fidelity to the God of the civilized nations. Hoover's cablegram follows:

"The world relief programme now being developed by the United States and the Allies contemplates that whenever possible relief work will be financed by the countries affected, through the medium of loan or other Government assistance. Nevertheless, distress and suffering exists in many areas where payment for relief supplies cannot be made. These charity cases still urgently need private benevolence.

"This is the situation with regard to the Armenians, Syrians and Persians. There is probably no greater suffering today than among the persecuted peoples of Asia Minor, who have no funds and cannot secure Government loans, and have no other credit." It is to aid this distressing situation that your committee for Armenian and Syrian relief is making its appeal to the generosity of the American people.

"With your financial accomplishment, your committee representing these stricken peoples can come under the direction of the new Inter-Allied World Relief organization, and will receive its co-operation in the purchase and shipment of supplies.

"Arrangements are being made to assign one complete flour cargo not en route for Southern Europe to the order of your committee, and further supplies will shortly be located to you by the Inter-Allied Committee, as soon as we are assured that the necessary finances have been provided.

"HERBERT HOOVER."

"INASMUCH AS YE DID IT UNTO THESE, YE DID IT UNTO ME" President Wilson's request that Congress should appropriate $100,000,000 to aid in feeding and meeting the other urgent necessities of European countries outside of Germany should be granted immediately. Indeed, if President Wilson had asked for $1,000,000,000 for this purpose, it should be freely given as a thanksgiving offering to Almighty God for our almost boundless blessings.

We grew rich out of the war, while Europe is impoverished. We have comforts beyond anything Europe has ever known. We scarcely deny ourselves anything, so marvelously blessed is our country. It behooves us, therefore, to give unstintingly to the suffering ones of Europe. We should pour out our wealth by the hundreds of millions—indeed, by the billions if need be—that Europe's starving people may be fed and clothed.

Germany has robbed and impoverished other lands; its soil has known no battles; its people has not been driven from ruined homes or devastated fields. Germany, therefore, can care for its own people or pay for food they may need; but in Belgium and France and Serbia and Italy and Rumania and Russia we should go in the fullness of our power to feed and clothe without regard to the hundreds of millions of money needed.

Of what value is all our wealth if we do not use it wisely to succor the perishing?

COUNTY HISTORIANS MUST BE APPOINTED AT ONCE

In order to push forward the work of collecting and preserving the records of soldiers and sailors in the service from this county, as well as war activities of civilians, it is highly important that each county promptly select a Historian, and notify the State Historian of such appointment.

A great many counties in the State have already appointed historians, and forms and suggestions have been sent to them, so that their work is now getting well under way. When the history of Kentucky's part in the war is written if the part which any county takes does not appear in that history it will be a matter of regret to the negligent county. Records made now will be invaluable in a few years.

"Please appoint a County Historian at once, and send his or her name to Fred P. Caldwell, State Historian, 1014 Inter-Southern Building, Louisville, Ky.," is the specific request of the Kentucky Council of Defense, through Edward W. Hines, its chairman.

KING OF AUTO RACERS QUITS THE GAME

Barney Oldfield, Greatest Wheel-Guns of All Times, to Retire From Speedway Contests.

Chicago, January 18—Barney Oldfield, the greatest automobile racing driver of all time, will never crouch behind the wheel of a racing machine again. This information was given out here yesterday by David Joyce, multi-millionaire lumberman and former backer of Oldfield.

Oldfield, who is expected in Chicago within the next few days, is going into the automobile tire manufacturing business in Cleveland. The concern will be capitalized at more than $1,000,000.

When Oldfield announced at the beginning of the 1918 racing season that it would be his last many fans thought that he was doing a "Bernhardt farewell." But as the season advanced and Barney risked life and limb in a desperate effort to win the big speedway races and later to smash all the old dirt track records, his friends began to take notice.

Then at Springfield, Ill., Barney started out to smash his old track record. His Golden Submarine went through the fence and the door was jammed in the wreck. The car caught fire and by the time Barney was able to extricate himself he had been badly burned.

Oldfield's career is one of the most spectacular in the history of the sporting world. From a coal miner in Colorado he became a bicycle rider in the old days of the League of American Wheelmen. Later he became a pacemaker for the late Floyd McFarland, Jimmy Michael and other stars in the motor paced racing game.

About twenty years ago Henry Ford built his first automobile. It was the famous "999". After a couple of its drivers had been killed, Bill Piekens engaged Oldfield as his pilot. Barney made good. He drove the car at a mile a minute clip on the dirt tracks, the first time it was ever done.

Scores of times Barney was bruised, battered and broken in wrecks, but his spirit and keen desire for speed was never broken. As the auto builder better learned their art the ears became faster and faster and always Oldfield had the fastest car, until at Daytona, Fla., he established the record of two miles a minute on the straightaway.

Last season Oldfield finished well up in the money in the Harkness Handicap at Sheepshead Bay, the Chicago Derby and the Liberty Handicap at Cincinnati. Then he jumped away from the American Automobile Association and went back to his old favorites—the dirt tracks and the country fairs. There he set many new track records.

10 PER CENT. TAX ON THE OUTPUT OF CHILD LABOR

Levy on Goods in Interstate Commerce Fixed—Excess Profits Fixed.

Washington, January 17—The Senate and House conferees have agreed on the Senate amendment to the war revenue bill, levying tax of 10 per cent upon the products of child labor entering interstate commerce. The conferees reached complete agreement on nearly all of the miscellaneous tax disputes. Their next work lies in the direction of the war excess profits taxes. It is believed that the bill will go to the President before February 1. Agreement has been reached to remove the war taxes on first-class postage, and the old rates will be in force after July 1.

TEXT OF THE FEDERAL PROHIBITION AMENDMENT

The prohibition amendment resolution passed by Congress provides that ratification shall be by "the Legislatures of the several States as provided by the constitution." The resolution follows:

"Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled (two-thirds of each House concurring therein), that the following amendment to the constitution be, and hereby is, proposed to the States, to become valid as a part of the constitution, when ratified by the Legislatures of the several States as provided by the constitution:

"Article 1—After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

"Section 2—The Congress and the several States shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

"Section 3—This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the constitution by the Legislatures of the several States, as provided in the constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the States by Congress."

The resolution was passed by the Senate, 65 to 20, on August 1, 1917, and by the House, 228 to 128, on December 17, 1917. Mississippi was the first State to ratify the amendment. Its Legislature acting on January 8, 1918.

TWO MOTHERS

A mother of Germany had just lost her ninth son when the following letter came to her from the would-be ruler of the universe:

"His Majesty, the Kaiser, hears you have sacrificed nine sons in defense of the Fatherland in the present war. His Majesty is immensely gratified at the fact and, in recognition, is pleased to send you his photograph, with frame and autograph signature.

Many years ago during the Civil war, when the immortal Lincoln heard of Mrs. Bixby having given five sons on the field of battle, the following letter came to her from that wonderful character:

"Dear Madam—I have been shown, in the files of the War Department a statement of the Adjutant General of Massachusetts that you are the mother of five sons who have died gloriously on the field of battle. I know how weak and fruitless must be any words of mine which should attempt to beguile you from a grief of a loss so overwhelming. But I cannot refrain from tendering to you the consolation that may be found in the thanks of the Republic they died to save. I pray that our Heavenly Father may assuage the anguish of your bereavement and leave you only the cherished memory of the loved and lost and the solemn pride that must be yours to have laid so costly a sacrifice on the altar of freedom.

"A SPLENDID TONIC"

Says Hixson Lady Who, On Doctor's Advice, Took Cardui And Is Now Well.

Hixson, Tenn.—"About 10 years ago I was..." says Mrs. J. B. Gadd, of this place. "I suffered with a pain in my left side, could not sleep at night with this pain, always in the left side..."

My doctor told me to use Cardui. I took one bottle, which helped me and after my baby came, I was stronger and better, but the pain was still there.

I at first let it go, but began to get weak and in a run-down condition, so I decided to try some more Cardui, which I did.

This last Cardui which I took made me much better, in fact, cured me. It has been a number of years, still I have no return of this trouble.

I feel it was Cardui that cured me, and I recommend it as a splendid female tonic.

"Don't allow yourself to become weak and run-down from womanly troubles. Take Cardui. It should surely help you, as it has so many thousands of other women in the past 40 years. Headache, backache, dizziness, nervousness, sleeplessness, tired-out feeling, are all signs of womanly trouble. Other women get relief by taking Cardui. Why not you? All druggists.

METHODIST REVIVAL OPENED SUNDAY WITH MUCH INTEREST

Meetings Will Continue Each Evening With Preaching By the Pastor—Large Chorus Furnishes Good Music.

The big Centenary Evangelistic Campaign at the Third Street M. E. Church got a good beginning yesterday. With favorable weather large crowds attended both services. Rev. Peters, the pastor-evangelist, preached very strong sermons, holding the interest of the congregation throughout. The evening sermon was especially good. The singing of the big chorus was extra fine. Mr. Dodds is very much encouraged at the outlook for the best chorus that has ever done service in a Maysville meeting. The chorus is made up not only of singers from this church, but of all the churches. An effort is being made to enlist all the singers of the city. It is a great opportunity for singers to be in such a chorus with such a brilliant leader. The morning congregation was favored with a beautiful solo by Mr. Dodds' father, Mr. Clarence Dodds of Middletown, Ohio; the special numbers for evening was "The Awakening Chorus" by the choir and "In the Garden" by a girls quartet composed of Misses Phoebe Huron and Flossie Jones, sopranos, and Misses Gertrude Jones and Anna Sexton, altos. Prof. and Mrs. J. S. Young with cornet and baritone instruments assisted the choir.

Services this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The song service will begin promptly at this hour. Special solo this evening by Mr. Dodds and a chorus number by the choir. On Tuesday evening the audience is to be favored by a cornet solo by Prof. Young. It is expected that the chorus will grow until the platform is crowded. Mr. Dodds has a program of special numbers outlined for the whole meeting. The public may be assured that a fine and inspirational treat in the way of Gospel singing is in store. There will be a meeting of all personal workers in the lower room at 7:15 each evening for a special session of prayer. All who will be urged to attend this preliminary meeting.

GROUP PRACTISE BRINGS MUSIC OUT OF KIDS

Prof. and Mrs. J. S. Young in charge of the Maysville Boys' Band, report that rapid progress is being made. The boys are now meeting at the band room in groups. All musicians on one certain instrument meet at the same time and it is said the progress the youngsters are making is wonderful.

Mr. Russell K. Wyatt, buyer for the Reynolds Tobacco Company at Ripley, spent Sunday in Maysville with friends.

WILSON'S PLANS FOR NATION LEAGUE BEING APPROVED

President Says No Peace Is Possible Until Threat of Economic Competition Is Ended.

Paris, January 20—With the American plan for the League of Nations completed, President Wilson was rounding out his program for international labor legislation today.

The president's position is said to be that no peace is possible until the threat of economic competition which might destroy the safeguards of labor is ended.

It was expected he would make some public declaration of his views in this regard in the two speeches he was to make today.

The addresses were to be delivered at a luncheon tendered him by the French Senate and upon the occasion of his attending a session of the Chamber of Deputies.

The American program includes an international child labor law, protection for women workers, regulation of working conditions and an agreement on the hours of labor to constitute a universal work day.

In his speeches in Italy the president emphasized the importance of the influence of labor on world opinion and made plain that labor must be recognized fully in the peace negotiations.

The League of Nations plan of the American delegation is based on careful study of its own and allied ideas. Allied authorities familiar with the plan say it is the best yet promulgated. It embodies many of the features of General Smuts' program and includes many of the details of the British plan.

The American plan, it is understood, provides that the present associated powers shall constitute the nucleus of the league and every free nation shall have the right of membership.

There is a provision for arbitration, with compulsory measures, which would prevent the outbreak of war pending reports of the arbitrators.

The memorandum prepared by the American delegates outlines the possibility of new world thought, action and spirit, designed virtually to prevent future wars.

MARKET OPENS STRONGER THAN LAST WEEK

Large Amount of Tobacco on Hand and All Grades Are Selling High—Sales Move Rapidly.

The tobacco market opened Monday for the week even stronger than it had closed Friday when all previous records for prices were smashed. Warehousemen were of the opinion that many grades were more than a dollar higher than they were the previous week.

All warehouses were well filled with the weed and although sales moved rapidly the buyers were unable to get through the large houses where tobacco had blocked up for the several days at the close of last week. At the large houses the buyers were unable to finish the sales even on a portion of the houses and will have to return there again Tuesday morning to resume the sales.

SHEEP ARE COMING BACK

With the new dog law being enforced and a strong public feeling growing against the cur dog, sheep will come into their own once more on hills of old Kentucky. As the farmers get ready to increase their flocks they are sure to wish to know the latest methods of handling sheep and lambs. Mr. F. R. Marshall, Senior Animal Husbandman, Sheep Investigations, Bureau of Animal Industry of Washington, D. C., will talk to the sheep men Tuesday, January 28th, at the armory. Sheep are coming back and it will pay to hear Mr. Marshall.

Saturday night about midnight yemen entered the general store rooms of the Kroger Grocery Company in Cincinnati and after binding the nightwatchman, engineer and negro porter to chairs with wire, blew the safe and got away with $600. Nearly $3,000 in the safe was overlooked by the yeggs.

Mechanic Clay H. Wood having graduated from the Medical Mechanical School in Louisville, Ky., and being later transferred to Ft. Greenleaf, Ga., has again been transferred to the General Hospital No. 38 in Lakeview, New York.

YOUNGEST SON OF KING GEORGE DEAD; EPILEPTIC

London, January 20—Prince John, the youngest son of King George, died at Sandringham Saturday night. He had been ill for some time.

The prince was possessed of exuberant spirits. He was the prime favorite of all classes and the idol of the servants and tenants at Windsor. It is said that he was the favorite brother of Princess Mary who loved to romp with him. The prince was born at Sandringham, July 12, 1905.

An official bulletin issued this evening says: "Prince John, who since infancy had suffered epileptic fits which lately had become more frequent and severe, passed away in his sleep following an attack at 5:30 p. m. Saturday."

Police Sergeant James Mackey is confined to his home in West Third street on account of illness.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: Con Gulffoye, 113 East Eighth street, employee of the Proctor & Gamble Company, is made the defendant in a suit for divorce and alimony, filed yesterday by Una Gulffoye. She charges neglect and cruelty, and declares he beat her so often in the last three years she has suffered a nervous breakdown. They were married at Maysville, Ky., February 23, 1905, and have two children, whose custody the wife seeks.

Circuit Judge C. D. Newell did not go to Flemingsburg today to open the January term of the Fleming Circuit Court. Court will be opened Wednesday morning.
